TAYLOR MADE GROUP PRESIDENT AND CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER ANNOUNCES RETIREMENT

GLOVERSVILLE, N.Y. – Sept. 10, 2015 – The Taylor Made Group has announced that President and Chief Operating Officer, Andy Jobbins, will retire at the close of the company’s current fiscal year, effective October 1, 2015.

Jobbins was promoted to his current position in 2010, after serving as Trend Marine Products Managing Director and Taylor Made Group’s International Managing Director — responsible for their facilities in the United Kingdom, Ireland, Australia and New Zealand.

“We wish Andy health, happiness, and the very best as he enters his retirement,” said Dennis Flint, Chairman and CEO of The Taylor Made Group.

The Taylor Made Group will be conducting a search of external and internal candidates in order to fill the position with a suitable replacement.
